Anabaptist Financial presents employee seminars from an Anabaptist perspective. Our seminars help you develop operational skills, implement best practices, work together in harmonious relationships. Join us for a unique opportunity to:

- Hear sound teaching – that integrates Biblical values and spiritual truth with practical business counsel.
- Advance your business education – by attending year after year. Our systematic teaching of various aspects of employee work leads to well-rounded business training. Each year focuses on different areas of business operations and workplace issues.
- Invest your time well – by setting aside the tasks of one day to focus on your long-term development as an employee. Time invested in personal growth has good returns
- Energize your vision – with renewed inspiration for personal growth and renewed purpose in your employment.
- Gain kingdom focus – by learning and growing in kingdom-focused business theory and practice. Learn how others live out the Sermon on the Mount at work.
- Interact with other Anabaptist business people – from our own circles, who share their employee experience. Gain insights and connections that you will not find at secular or non-Anabaptist seminars.

Anabaptist Financial's employee seminars are not only for employees but also business owners and partners. From new employees to old pros, everyone will benefit

Topics to Note

My Contribution to a Christian Culture, Melvin Knepp

The atmosphere in the workplace reflects the character of those who work there. A Christian Culture is more than a Biblical Mission Statement. It is the result of individuals integrating Godly principles into their attitudes toward work, professional habits, and relationships.

Moral Safety in the Workplace, Norman Yoder

Proactive steps should be taken to protect moral safety. Physical and emotional attachments can quickly become unhealthy if not guarded against. What is your responsibility to maintain a safe, Christian environment where men and women can work respectfully and ethically together?

Looking out for Each Other, Robert Lang

A workplace bears fruit in group dynamics, safety, job satisfaction, productivity, and our relationship with Christ. What stumbling blocks do we have in the workplace? And how do we produce the fruit of unity, safety, accountability, compliance, and Christ on a jobsite?

Embracing Conflict, Tyler Hochstetler, Esq

Is conflict a problem or an opportunity? While conflict can be wrong at times, healthy disagreement can spark innovation, strengthen relationships, and drive progress. Having a culture where open dialogue is welcomed can create outcomes that bless everyone involved.

Profiting From Failure, Neil Kurtz

Failure has been a part of our story since Adam and Eve were working in the garden. How do we profit from the failures, mistakes, and setbacks that inevitably happen? How do I handle personal and team failures? What can I do to lessen harmful happenings at work? Let's go on a journey together to discover how to turn failure into profit for ourselves and our team.

Leaving a Positive Impact, Paul Peachey

"Let your light so shine before men." Sometimes shining brightly and consistently is the most difficult among those with whom we interact most frequently. Learn how your "good works" benefit others and "glorify your Father."
